Sales & Marketing Graduate Opportunities

Sales

At ARYZTA, we work closely with our customers in Retail, and Foodservice industries. Tailoring product concepts and pioneering new products and categories is key for our success. In the sales function you will get exposure to several areas for example, account management, product management, promotions, new product launches, sales support and planning for sustainable supply. After successful training graduates could move into career avenues such as Junior Key Account Manager, Product Manager, Sales Controlling.

Marketing

A key component of ARYZTA, our marketing teams work in tandem to deliver branded customer experiences like no other. These vital teams constantly strive to improve our product offering and reach our customers in new and exciting ways through a host of mediums every day. Graduates within these areas will get real life experience in the ever changing and constantly challenging world of developing and delivering branded 'turnkey' business solutions to the European retail and foodservice markets.
